"Grab, Twist and Please: an Intro to CBT" presented by Pervertable Dan

CBT or Cock and Ball Torture has a bad reputation. The thought of any kind of torture makes most uneasy. Add on the fact it is being done to the cock and balls and you will watch a large number of men quickly wince in pain. This workshop was developed to help break down the myths and stereotypes about the pleasures that can come from CBT. From the simple squeeze to ball stretching we will be looking at various forms of CBT and how to introduce it to those who are nervous about trying it. This workshop normally involved genital nudity, but will be modified to adapt to local obscenity laws

"Let the Floggings begin" presented by Oklahoma Mr. Leather 2005 Mason Alexander

From the very basic to intermediate, this class will cover the "HOW TOs" of flogging, the different types of floggers available, "strike placement", safety and how to go from sensual to heavy in just a few strokes.

12:00pm to 1:30pm

"Music of the Canes" presented by Master Malik

Staffs, sticks, stalks, reeds, measuring rods, writing, walking, fashion, entertainment, flexibility, judicial, boats, furniture, baskets and even weapons! What do all these things have in common? CANE! Because this material is so versatile we have taken this most affordable implement and let our imaginations run wild with it. Canes are pretty much synonymous with punishment in all times, ages, cultures and societies. In the BDSM realm canes evoke a harsh image when referred to but there is also an overlooked side to canes, one of sensuality. Have you considered the catharsis aspect of a good caning? What about material types, rhythm, stroke intensity, care, storing and maintenance? We shall discuss all of these and more. Please bring your own canes for show and tell, but I am sure we shall have plenty on hand.

"STRIP!" presented by Winner of Miss Exotic Globe Victoria Windsor

"Microbondage 101" presented by Lord Morpheous

Fingers, toes, hands, feet, head and the face will never be safe again! Binding these areas can be a very powerful mental experience. Learn how to tie someone in a way that will delay their orgasm while you toy with them. Yarn, parachute cord, twine, string are all delights for this workshop. Bring: Crochet hook Class level: Beginner to Intermediate Time: 1.5 - 2 hours including individual and group hands-on experience

"The Art of Submission & Service" presented by girl dani

What is service? How can one serve if they are not in a relationship? What types of service can bottoms perform? How can a bottom serve and not burn out? Combining service and submission is an art; it needs to be learned, practised and refined. Service is not static, it's dynamic, it's movement, and it's ever changing. Like art, bottoms have forms of service they enjoy performing and Tops have forms and styles of service they are provided with. This workshop will allow for open discussion about all these questions, will offer a suggested formats for servicing a formal dinner and ways for bottoms to serve when not in a dynamic/relationship. Also, a discussion around how to negotiate service will be included. This workshop is open to all whether you are experienced in service, just starting your journey or wondering if service is for you. *Note- Top is used to include all types of Tops such as Master/Mistress, Sir/Syr, Daddy/Mommy, etc. Bottom is used to include all types of bottoms such as slave, submissive, boi/y, girl, etc.

3:30pm to 5:00pm

"Hotel Room Dungeon" presented by Sudbury's Master C

In his day job Master C spends over 150 nights a year in hotels. Over the years he has developed strategies and methods that are portable and usable in almost any hotel setting. From dealing with the cleaning lady who ignores do not disturb signs; to creating a flogging station; to making rooms more sound proof. This seminar will show practical and affordable ways to make private play space in any hotel.

"Blood Rituals: Show Me Your Soul" presented by Master Malik

Bloodletting rituals have been a part of the human experience since the beginning. The sacred and vital substance of blood has been used in purification rituals, to show a sign of obedience, offer the gift of surrender, empower sacred objects, and seal the precious bond between lovers, family and friends in various cultures. The focus of this class is on the powerful and sensual properties of blood and spiritual and ritual cutting. We will discuss its allure and magnetism as well as the emotional and spiritual impact it has in a S&M session. The eroticism of the act of cutting is a very potent aphrodisiac and has a powerful effect on the psyche of those involved in blood play. We will discuss necessary safety precautions and the appropriate equipment to use during blood rituals/play as well as offer suggestions on how to create an atmosphere conducive to such a session. We shall also share our views and experiences about the power this kind of energy exchange which is at the apex of body, mind and soul. Please be advised that this is an advanced class recommended for people who understand the idea of safe, sane, and consensual or risk aware consensual kink; for those who desire and love playing on the edge.
